

Four Bowlers Roll Exceptional Sets--Relays to Feature Meet Tomorrow Night

LAWRENCESON TOPS DUCKPIN ROLLERS

Gets 381 Set With Casinos, Three Others Having More Than 370.

CASINOS SET TEAM PACE

Roll for Total of 1,661 Against Inglesides--Other Excellent Performances.

Lawrence, of the Casinos, in the National Capital League, of Harmon, in the Masonic, C. Benson, of the Olives, Central League, and Hookstadt, of the Freeman team, Capital City League, all rolled sets of better than 370 in league competition last night. Lawrence led with a total of 381. Lawrence got 135 pins in his first game, 128 in the second and 118 in the final.

Shade Close Behind. Shade was only two pins behind Lawrence with counts of 121, 114 and 144, his third game being the largest of the night. Benson obtained a set of 378 and Hookstadt got 371.

Casinos, competing with the Inglesides, led all league teams with a total of 1,661, winning three games. Lawrence and Benson were the stars.

New England Lunch, rolling Model Lunch in a special match at the Grand Central, gave an exceptional exhibition. The team missed the 1,700 mark for a set by twenty-five pins, getting 552 in the first game, 542 in the second and winding up with 551. Tessa, leading off, was the best bowler of the match, with a 372 set, having a high game of 146. New England easily won three games.

Harmony on Top

Harmony gained a decisive victory over St. John's in the Masonic circuit, which was a valuable one in view of the team's position among the leaders of the league. Harmony won an entire set with all games above 500.

Williams was a consistently capable performer for maintenance of Way against Southern in the Territorial R. Y. M. C. A. League, with scores of 116, 118, and 113. His team lost two games.

LEAVE TONIGHT FOR MATCH AT ROANOKE

Royal Duckpin Team Meets Palace Quint Tomorrow With Big Advantage.

Harry B. Halley, captain; Harry Krauss, Bernard Carroll, Earl Lewis, and Ed Howser, composing the Royal duckpin team, leave at 12 o'clock tonight for Roanoke, Va., where they will roll the Palace team in the concluding games of a ten-game intercity series, begun in this city several weeks ago, when the Royals gained a margin of 205 pins.

Henry T. Rodier, Curtis Lamson, Frank Massey, and "Georgy" Gaines, Royal rooters, will accompany the team.

Harry Stanford, one of the Royal regulars, will not make the trip. Stanford has an infected finger on his right hand, and will be unable to roll for some time. Ed Howser will take his place in the Roanoke match.

Mt. Pleasant women's team, formerly representing the Casino alleys, rolled exceptionally well in trimming the Grand Central women last night.

Mrs. Ackman, of the Mt. Pleasant, with a total of 311, gave one of the best performances ever accredited to a woman in this city. She led the fair pinpilers, while Mrs. Malcolm and Miss Eckhardt also rolled well. The scores:

MT. PLEASANT.
Mrs. Malcolm. 93 100 101-294
Mrs. Ackman. 99 96 114-311

GEORGETOWN'S MEET SET FOR TOMORROW

Relay Races Announced by Ray Devlin for Convention Hall Program.

With pairings for the relay's announced today Georgetown's nineteenth annual indoor meet to be held in Convention Hall tomorrow night awaits the starter's gun.

Athletes from many schools and colleges will be on hand to take part in the various races and relays. Among the college athletes will be seen representatives from Virginia, Johns Hopkins, Maryland State, George Washington, Catholic University, Penn State, Lehigh, Gallaudet and Washington and Lee.

Schools Send Many

Schoolboy runners will be entered from Central Tech, Western Eastern, Georgetown Prep, Baltimore Polytechnic, Episcopal High School, Tome School, Marston School and Country School of Baltimore.

Interest centers in the South Atlantic A. A. championship events, of which these are five, Virginia, Hopkins, Washington and Lee, and Georgetown will provide a merry battle for the point honors.

As the South Atlantic A. A. events are to be distributed through three meets this year, Georgetown men are anxious to get top honors in their own meet. Baltimore will stage the second set of events next Saturday and on the week following George Washington will have the final events.

Relays Attractive. Manager Ray Devlin has announced the relays as follows:

Southern Boys Club vs. Hartford A. C.; Baltimore Polytechnic Institute vs. University School and Episcopal High School; Carroll Institute vs. Baltimore A. A. and Washington Swimming Club; Coney Chase vs. Hartford A. C. vs. Western High School; Baltimore Polytechnic Institute vs. Southern Boys Club; Tome Institute vs. Episcopal High School; Delta Theta Phi vs. Delta Phi; Western High School vs. Baltimore Polytechnic Institute; Episcopal High vs. Western High School; Washington Gas Light Company vs. Wash.

TRINITY IS HERE FOR THREE GAMES

Visitors Have Beaten V. M. I., Staunton, and University of Virginia Teams.

Trinity College, of North Carolina, begins a four-day stay here today by engaging Georgetown University in basketball on Ryan gymnasium floor. The Hilltop basketball realize they have their work cut-out for them.

Star college athletes are in form. Brooke Brewer's recent performances on the boards insure hot competition unless the State athlete is too heavily handicapped in the sprints and quarter. Griffith, Reno, Aury and Gates, of Georgetown, are appearing in the dashes and quarter.

Henke, of Washington and Lee, is the best man among the visitors in the sprints. Griffith, Brewer, and Henke should furnish the thrills in the dashes. Weidmann, of Georgetown, and Hallman, of W. and L., are expected to battle it out in the pole vault.

Trinity has met and defeated Virginia Military Institute, Staunton Military Academy, and the University of Virginia. Last night the Trinity team hung up a 37 to 34 victory over the University of Virginia quint in Charlottesville, which is no mean feat.

Plays Three Times. Tonight's game should be a whirlwind affair on the Hilltop. The Trinity team engages Georgetown tonight, Catholic University tomorrow afternoon, and George Washington on Monday night. The afternoon contest tomorrow is booked in order not to conflict with the Georgetown indoor track meet.

Catholic University is scheduled to oppose the North Carolina A. and M. quint tonight in Carroll Institute gym.
